

Home Planet:

Indiana Jones
Earth

Han Solo
Corellia

Winner: Well I've never been to Corellia so I can't judge it, for all I know it could be as exciting as Delaware. Point goes to Indy, I've been to Earth before.

Education:

Indiana Jones
PHD

Han Solo
Discharged from the Imperial Academy.

Winner: Education is the key to a bright future, but Indiana's always seemed to get him in to trouble. Han may have been kicked out of school but he became a general and helped topple an evil empire. Point goes to Han.

Weapon of choice:

Indiana Jones
Bull whip and revolver

Han Solo
Heavy Blaster
Pistol

Winner: Anyone can go to their local gun shop and pick up a good old fashioned pistol and a bull whip, but a heavy blaster pistol? Come on, who hasn't wanted a heavy blaster pistol? Point Han.

Career:

Indiana Jones
College professor and archeologist

Han Solo
Smuggler and eventually he became General.

Winner: Being a smuggler and a general is fine and dandy, but being a professor with tons of groupies is something else. Point Indiana Jones.

Indiana Jones
Nazis and pagans.

Han Solo
Jabba the Hut

Han Solo
Princess Leia

Winner: Now this is did sleep with Dr. after his father did in a tricky one. Indy Schneider weeks The Last Crusade, but Han's situation is even a little more pathetic than that. Han did end up with Princess Leia, but for the first two movies she had a crush on her brother. Once she realized she was related to her prince charming she was all Han's, but this situation would even make Freud blush. Point Indy.

Indiana Jones
Weird AI in UHF.

Han Solo
Spaceballs

Winner: "We ain't found shit." Point Spaceballs.

Video games and merchandise:

Indiana Jones
17 video games. Official coat and hat available.

Han Solo

Han has no video games dedicated strictly to him but he is in several games. Han has countless action figures made in his likeness.

Winner: Well personally I hate video crack so I'm not impressed by 17 video games; but Indy also has a pinball machine. Both of them have a number of action figures, but as a kid I had a bunch of Han Solos. Point Han.

Although Han Solo was never a main character in his trilogy, he was by far one of the best characters. Indy was pretty clever, quite knowledgeable, and he did have his way with the ladies, but in the end it just comes down to the fact that Han Solo is the bigger bad ass. Winner: Han Solo.
