

Who's a bigger...
bad ass?

R. Kelly

VS.

Jackson

Michael

Music career (believe it or not, this is how they both became famous)

MJ: Michael Jackson's music career can be summed up in one word- Thriller.

R. Kelly: For me it doesn't get any better than hearing "I believe I can fly" by street performers in the city- oh yeah and, "I don't see nothin' wrong..."

Winner: Well not that it matters, but I always prefer the street musician's version to R. Kelly's. But like I said, it's not like it matters; he's competing against Thriller. Thriller is one of the best albums of all times- MJ wins this round.

Best Facial Hair

MJ: Michael Jackson's facial hair freaks me out. Is it just me or does Michael Jackson's facial hair make him look like he's auditioning for Planet of the Apes?

R. Kelly: I think R. Kelly spends more time trimming his facial hair than he does checking the ID's of the girls he's dating. Well I guess most of the girls he dates don't have ID's yet.

Winner: R. Kelly (it's sad to even have to pick winners this month)

Family

MJ: I think the Jackson's five each other plastic surgery operations for every birthday and or holiday. There's enough plastic in this family to build a new H2 Hummer.

R. Kelly: R. Kelly's attorney's claimed it wasn't R. Kelly in the sex tape, it was his (R. Kelly's) brother. Now that's love!

Winner: Psychiatrists in a town near them.

Fashion (onstage, in court, outside of court (they do have life outside of court))
